Woman's Place?

"Is Woman's Place in the Home?" is the subject which will be discussed by two of Ontario's brilliant women speakers—Controller Nora-Frances Henderson of the Hamilton City Council and Mrs. H. P. Plumptre—at a special women's civics rally, under the auspices of the Citizenship and Economics Committees of the Toronto Local Council of Women, in Eaton's Round Room, next Monday afternoon. Miss Margaret Gould and Mrs. F. E. Wright are conveners of the rally, which concludes the civics course conducted recently.

Silver Cross Women

Honor Mrs. Jackson

The Silver Cross Women of the British Empire held their regular monthly meeting in the Y.W.C.A., McGill Street, with Mrs. W. R. Jackson in the chair. A message of loyalty is to be cabled to his Majesty on his birthday, it was decided, and a donation to King George's Jubilee Fund is to be sent to England. Members also pledged themselves to furnish a room in the Women's College Hospital, to be called "The Elizabeth Jackson" room. On behalf of the members Miss Winnifred Kydd, President of the National Council of Women, is to place a silver cross on the Cenotaph on June 11, when the National Council of Women meets in Toronto.

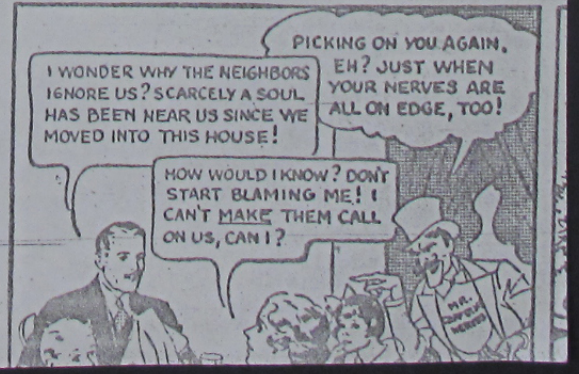

Plans for the pilgrimage to Vimy next year were discussed, also plans for the annual sail around the harbor.

OPERETTA GIVEN.

Scarboro' Washington United Church was filled to overflowing to witness a presentation of "Maid and Golden Slipper," a two-act operetta by members of the Dixie Club, assisted by Bluebird Club and Explorers, and directed by Miss Francis Dix, Miss L. Goforth, Mrs. C. J. Torrance. A toy symphony orchestra, with Mrs. Torrance at the piano, and George Graham, violinist, provided music between acts.

Under the auspices of the Educational Committee of the Local Council of Women, a meeting is being held this afternoon in the Art Gallery. The speakers are to be Arthur Lismer, who is speaking on "Children's Art," and W. J. Dunlop, whose subject is "Adult Education."

Margaret Eaton Girls Give Fine Program

Infinite grace and skill was displayed by pupils of Margaret Eaton School in the varied program they presented at their physical education demonstration in Hart House gymnasium last night.

"Rhythmic gymnastics for the motivation of child interest," was a unique number in which the junior students accompanied, with helpful exercises, such old familiar rhymes as "The House That Jack Built." Progression for the teaching of social dancing was ably demonstrated, the fox-trot and the tango being explained and danced. Folk-dances included a lively Morris dance to the tune of jingling bells and the flutter of filmy handkerchiefs; a dreamy Portuguese dance and a German folk-dance. Vaulting, apparatus work, clever tap dancing, fundamental and German expression gymnastics, tumbling, pyramids and volley ball were interesting numbers.

The concluding section of the program was, perhaps, the most interesting of all, "The Modern Dance."

The juniors, in long, bright green costumes, presented two very effective numbers, "Supplication," and "Rust-cale." The seniors, in graceful, deep blue costumes, presented "Outcast," which was a particularly outstanding and artistic achievement, and an ensemble "acelerando." All the modern dances were composed by the students.

In charge of the program were Miss Florence A. Somers, director of the school; Miss Elizabeth Wardley, Miss Dorothy Jackson, Miss Marion Holiday, and Miss Kathleen Pepler.

Weddings

ROSEVEAR-WARNOCK.

Of interest in musical circles was the marriage last night of two organists, Miss Beatrice Robertson Warnock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Warnock, assistant organist at St. David's Church, and Henry Rosevear, organist. Mr. Rosevear is the only son of Mrs. George Rosevear and the late Mr. Rosevear of Camborne, Cornwall. Spring flowers decorated the church for the occasion, and the service was fully choral, with Dr. H. A. Fricker at the organ. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a graceful gown of white suede lace with frilled stand-up collar and sleeves puffed above the elbow. Her veil of silk tulle was caught to the head with orange blossoms in front and with gardenias at the back. She carried Butterfly roses. Miss Janet Warnock attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing an orchid frock with frilled cape and hat to match and carried Pernet roses. The bridesmaids were Misses Edith and Irene Warnock, also sisters of the bride. Their frocks were of yellow silk net with hats to match and they carried orchid sweet peas made into old-fashioned nosegays. Mr. John Nicholson attended the groom, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Mustard and Mr. Douglas Mustard. Later a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, McFarland Avenue, the bride's mother welcoming the guests in a gown of rose Chantilly lace with a black picture hat and corsage of Tallman roses. The bride and groom left later for a trip to Atlantic City, and on their return will reside in Toronto. The agement—in short, all the duties with which the average young woman would have to familiarize herself in undertaking the successful management of the average home.

Yesterday afternoon visitors had an opportunity of witnessing the results of the excellent training given along this important work by these two schools, as the students, in their neat middie and skirts, assisted members of the Board of Directors—the hostesses of the occasion—in looking after guests.

The President, Mrs. J. B. McGregor, received, assisted by Miss Mildred Mann, Director of the Haven, and Miss Laurie Charleson. Other members present were: Mrs. J. Margaret Eaton Girls Are Awarded Diplomas

"If you see a girl in a position which does not bring out that distinctive thing she is capable of doing, do not let her remain in it," was the injunction of Rev. George C. Pidgeon, in addressing the members of the graduating class of Margaret Eaton School at their commencement exercises yesterday afternoon. "Find your own line and follow it earnestly," he urged. "When disappointment and trouble come your way, remember there is a purpose in them—they will be stepping-stones onward."

Miss Jessie Macpherson, Dean of Women at Victoria College, in her address, urged the girls to consider their work as an end in itself; to become interested in the people they worked with; and to develop a personal philosophy of life.

Miss Lillian Ross read the valedictory address, and songs by the School Glee Club added to the pleasure of the occasion. The School Director, Miss Florence A. Somers, presented the awards and diplomas. The graduates, in their long, white frocks and bouquets of vivid roses, made a charming picture against the banks of flowers on the platform.

The gold medal for the highest standing went to Blanche Leona Seagram. The Charlotte A. Kaulbach Silver Medal for general proficiency, leadership and service to the school went to Mary Margaret McCrae Leask. Honors in Practice were awarded Norah Gertrude Bannister and Elizabeth Emeline Snell. Diplomas were received by Janet Helen Loudon Cummings, Mary Elizabeth Gilchrist, Emily Elizabeth Jarvis, Beatrice Lucille Kirk, Mary Margaret McCrae Leask, Molly Emile Maw, Winifred Beattie McEvoy, Della Howett MacFarlane, Katharine Isabel MacKenzie, Brett Isabella Powles, Lillian Irene Rosa, Blanche Leona Seagram and Phyllis Cecilia White. Certificates went to Norah Gertrude Bannister, Margaret Elizabeth Ferguson, Margaret Hodgson Gurd, Margaret May Robinson and Elizabeth Emeline Snell.

Following the program tea was served. Mrs. F. G. Marriott presiding at the attractive table centred with spring flowers and lighted with green candles burning. The junior students assisted in serving the guests.
